

Computer Analyst, Windsor Mill, MD-EZCA019V

Specialized Area - Business Analyst

Specialized Skill - x-Other

Mandatory Skills

Agile, Scrum, XP, Waterfall, Erwin, MS Visio, SQL Query Analyzer, Quality Center

Job Description

Should work as business analyst on web-based projects, specifically .NET and SharePoint

Involve in relational databases and specifically SQL Server to provide functional input.

Be able to write simple SQL queries

Closely work with the testing team in testing the application to ensure that the system meets the requirements

Be able to take input from supervisor and appropriately and accurately applies comments/feedback

Possesses extensive understanding and experience in the areas of application programming, web-based programming, database and system design

Understands Internet, Intranet, Extranet and client/server architectures

Understands how legacy and web-based systems interface with each other

Communicates effectively with clients to identify needs and evaluate alternative business solutions with project management

Continually seeks opportunities to increase customer satisfaction and deepen client relationships

Work on security and legal controls including SOW, RFP and client purchase sheets.