

Computer Programmer, Windsor Mill, MD – EZCP009C

Specialized Area – Sys Admin/Network

Specialized Skill – Websphere Admin

Mandatory Skills

Business Objects Crystal Reports, VB.NET, and Oracle PL/SQL.

Job Description

Oracle Apps Development with SDLC/AIM including designing, coding, testing, debugging, maintaining and documenting.

Ensure project implementation adheres to internal and external compliance requirements.

Work on modern reporting applications to produce automated reports. (i.e. Business Objects Crystal Reports, VB.NET, and Oracle PL/SQL)

Create SQL code to build Oracle tables and also responsible for Generating SQL code to perform a rapid assessment of table loads and content of key elements.

Prepare operations and report documentation that is detailed and easily interpreted and follow established procedures for making modifications and upgrades to existing scripts and reports.

Perform validation of reports, scripts and processes during development ensuring data integrity prior to releasing finished product to internal and external clients.

Respond to server center reporting needs according to the customer service guidelines of Data Management & Analysis.

Show technical and analytic skills and ability to understand complex systems, designs and interface points

Work on 11g database upgrade for EBS database with 10g to 11g database upgrade on RAC Oracle database

Prepare and present findings and proposals to management, with recommendations, including cost benefit analysis, risk mitigation, and action plans.