DBA, Windsor Mill, MD – EZDBA003C

Specialized Area – DBAs   Specialized Skill - DB2/UDB DBA

Mandatory Skills
JYTHON, JSCRIPT, TQL or PL-SQL (Oracle)

Job Description

Install, configure, and validate DB2 across multiple environments including Security management and user provisioning.
Proactively monitor server and database process health to ensure availability and performance.
Implement proactive capacity planning processes and support DB2 high-availability and disaster recovery solutions.
Automate DBA processes and create shell scripts to streamline and improve efficiency.
Create and maintain database standards and support product development and test teams through the SDLC process.
Provide support for reviewing and approving schema changes.
Manage individual workloads and customer expectations and strike an effective balance between product and infrastructure support.
Produce technical documentation and participate in on-call DBA support and provide off hours production deployment support.

Key areas of responsibilities:
Work on development methodologies using different software languages JYTHON, XML
Work with Oracle or SQL DBA, Enterprise Application Architecture, XML development, Extract-Transform-Load (ETL)
Involve in development and integration using object oriented languages (i.e. Java, .NET and XML)
Write scripts based on JYTHON, JSCRIPT, TQL or PL-SQL (Oracle)
Possesses hardware and technical software operations knowledge for medium- to large- Organizations
Proficiency in MS Word, MS Power Point, and MS Visio