

QA, Windsor Mill, MD – EZQA009C

Specialized Area – QA/Testing

Specialized Skill – QA Analyst

Mandatory Skills

QTP, test plan, defect report, status report, etc and Automate testing script.

Job Description

Involve in multiple projects from inception to post implementation using Agile methodologies. Adheres to all departmental standards, including project estimating, test repository, test strategies, test script writing, execution and related documentation. Creates and maintains automated tests across web-based applications using QTP. Develop testing deliverable (test plan, defect report, status report, etc and Automate testing script design for various platforms. Script development (Web, Citrix, Client-Server), Test Execution Analysis of test results, including recommendations, setting up automation environment and Preparation of testing documentation. Investigate and resolve technical issues in the QA Functional and Integration Environments. Work independently to triage issues and prioritize tasks and committed to deadlines and Ability to work well within a team environment and communicate with onshore QA Manager and offshore QA Engineers both verbally and through email.

Key areas of responsibilities:

Oversees the client systems development lifecycle, including systems requirements, coding, testing, and implementation of proposed systems and provides critical recommendations and solutions for complex problems.

Developing, maintaining, and supporting applications and computer/network operating system and other system software.

Flexible to adjust to different shift timings as per the project needs.

Directs the development and maintenance of applications, and provide technical oversight for major Client projects.